Violence Reduction

What's Happening and Why?

Violent Crime Working Group

- Launched July 2021 in response to violence spike
- Diverse range of leaders across sectors
- Goal: Produce timely, relevant, and reliable anti-violence guidance
- Produced 3 reports on crime trends
- Issued 7 bulletins highlighting key findings
- Reached consensus on 10 essential actions

The 10 Essential Actions

(for Cities to Reduce Violence)

1. Set a clear goal: commit to saving lives by stopping violence
2. Identify the key people and places driving the violence
3. Create a citywide plan for engaging key people and places
4. Engage key people with empathy and accountability
5. Address key locations using place-based policing and investment
6. Place responsibility for violence reduction at the top
7. Emphasize healing with trauma-informed approaches
8. Invest in anti-violence workforce development
9. Set aside funding for new stakeholders and strategies
10. Commit to continuous improvement

Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT)

(Results from Two Leading Anti-Violence Programs)

Becoming A Man

45%

Reduction in violent-crime arrests

Youth Guidance's Becoming a Man program offers youth weekly group sessions during the school day and uses cognitive behavioral therapy to help youth slow down in high-stakes situations.

READI Chicago

80%

Reduction in shootings and homicide arrests among high-risk individuals

READI Chicago is a one-year program that connects people most highly impacted by gun violence to cognitive behavioral interventions, paid transitional jobs, and wrap-around support services.
